डॉ० अल्बेर्तेन वेबरेण शोधिता

आकार डिमाई ४ पेजी, पृष्ठ संख्या १०१५, मूल्य रु० ५०-००

डॉ० वेबर सम्पादित प्रस्तुत संस्करण अब तक के छपे अन्य संस्करणों से अधिक प्रामाणिक माना जाता है। जर्मनी में छपने के कारण यह संस्करण लुप्त-प्राय हो गया था। अथक प्रयत्न से इस संस्करण को टिकाऊ मोटे कागज पर यथावत् फोटो आफ सेट पद्धति से छापा गया है, जिससे इसकी मौलिकता ज्यों की त्यों बनी है। वरिष्ठ विद्वानों के आग्रह से इतने विशाल काय संस्करण का मूल्य नाममात्र रखा गया है। कागज की दुष्प्राप्यता से प्रतियाँ कम संख्या में छपी हैं। अतः मैं अपने स्थायी ग्राहकों से निवेदन करता हूँ कि वे अपनी प्रतियाँ शीघ्र मंगवाने की कृपा करें।

अब तक के छपे अन्य संस्करणों की अपेक्षा डॉ० वेबर सम्पादित प्रस्तुत संस्करण सर्वाधिक प्रमाणिक माना जाता है। पहले यह संस्करण जर्मनी से छपा था और अनेक वर्षों से दुष्प्राप्य था भगीरथ प्रयत्न करने पर सफेद चिकने टिकाऊ मोटे कागज पर फोटो आफ सेट से यह ग्रन्थ छापा गया है। महार्घता के कारण अल्प संख्या में प्रतियां छपी हैं। चौखम्बा प्रतिष्ठान के स्थायी ग्राहक शीघ्र इससे लाभ उठावें, यही सहानुभूतिपूर्वक निवेदन है।

ब्रह्मसूत्र-प्रमुखभाष्यपञ्चकसमीक्षणम्

डॉ० रामशरण त्रिपाठी

भारतीय दर्शनों में उपनिषद् को ही वेदान्तदर्शन का मूल माना गया है। ब्रह्मसूत्र की मूलभित्ति उपनिषद् ही है। ब्रह्मसूत्र पर जितनी टीकाएँ लिखी गयीं हैं, उनमें भारतीय धर्माचार्यों की टीकाएँ विशेष मान्य हैं। इन सबों में कौनसी विशेषता है, इसी को दर्शाने के लिये इस ग्रन्थ में—शंकर, रामानुज, निम्बार्क, मध्व, वल्लभ—इन पाँचों के भाष्यों का तुलनात्मक अध्यन प्रस्तुत किया गया हैं। इस ग्रन्थ के अध्ययन से ब्रह्मसूत्र का यथार्थ अभिप्राय उपलब्ध होगा।

We beg to say that

The opinions of eminent scholars and patrons of learning and culture printed in the following pages are sufficient, we believe, to convince anybody about the glorious past services rendered by the Chowkhamba Sanskrit Series to the great cause of the revival of the most recondite and ancient Sanskrit Literature which had remained quite obscured, far away from the modern world of knowledge—although gigantic financial stringency of these days is gripping quite monstrously the progress of our work; inspite of these difficulties our aim may be achieved and all our endeavours to revive the Sanskrit Literature and Indian Culture as well as to provide scholars with best materials for research and study repaid if you sincerely make up your mind to help us in this great cause by

1. Purchasing a complete available set of each of our Series for your library,

2. Ordering us for whatever book on Sanskrit and Indology whenever you may require,

3. Requesting your friends and societies, institutions, etc. to send us their valued orders.

Our Special Request

TO THE GOVERNMENTS OF INDIAN UNION, DIFFERENT STATES, OTHER FRIENDLY COUNTRIES, AUTHORITIES OF UNIVERSITIES, COLLEGES, LEARNED SOCIETIES, RESEARCH INSTITUTES, the great men of letters, Saints, Leaders, etc. is to patronize us by placing orders for complete available sets, which will enrich their libraries uniquely on one hand and will do a good deal to the promotion of learning and culture on the other.

GLORY OF ANCIENT SANSKRIT

IN VIEW OF THE ADVENTURERS

OF THE SANSKRIT WORLD.

WHAT

M. M. PT. HARAPRASAD SHASTRI, M. A., C. I. E.,

HON. D. LITT., CALCUTTA,

President of the Fifth All India Oriental Conference, Spoke ?

'......Individuals often published books of their choice either for money or out of love for these works. But these enterprises often failed, because Sanskrit works cannot bring handsome profit within a short time. The 'Pandit' of Banaras after a glorious career of 40 years has now disappeared...........The 'Vizianagram Series' after publishing 10 or 12 works died out. The CHOWKHAMBA SANSKRIT SERIES of Varanasi after publishing more than 400 fasciculi now appeal to the public for fresh patronage which it fully deserves...'

Dr. HERMANN JACOBI

LATE SANSKRIT PROFESSOR IN THE UNIVERSITY OF BONN, GERMANY

Bonn, 12th March, 1929.

The High merits of the publications of the Chowkhamba Sanskrit Series are so well known to all interested in Sanskrit Literature, that it is needless to speak in praise of them at greater length. Indeed, the long and splendid row of works from nearly all branches of Sanskrit literature which have been edited in the Chowkhamba Sanskrit Series—most of them for the first time and others in an improved shape—is a more convincing testimony to its great value and importance than the most eloquent words in its favour could be. All entitled to speak with authority agree that during the last thirty three years in which the Chowkhamba Sanskrit Series has been published, it has prominently been a cuase of advancing Indian studies in India and abroad, and that all interested in them owe a load of gratitude to its enterprising Secretary Jaya Krishna Das Gupta for continuing publication of the Series in spite of the ever increasing difficulties brought about by the change of times.

MIMANSA GRANTHAPRAKASHAK SAMITI

Poona 2, Dated 18. 12. 36.

We heartily congratulate you upon your rendering loyal Service to the Sanskrit Literature for years together without the least regard to self interest. Now-a-days it has become very difficult to edit and publish ancient unavailable works in Sanskrit without encouragement and the Patronisation of any Govt. and the people at large. But we admit frankly that you are bringing out into existence unavailable Sanskrit works nearly lost to the eye of the modern World of Sanskrit Scholarship.

OFFICE OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF

SANSKRIT STUDIES, U. P.

VARANASI, 14th January, 1937.

I have much pleasure in testifying to my high appreciation of the devotion and pubilc spirit of Babu Haridas Gupta and his worthy son and successor Babu Jaya Krishna Das Gupta, the founder and the present Secretary of the Chowkhamba Sanskrit Series, in which, since its inception in 1898, many rare and authoritative works on almost every branch of Sanskrit Literature have appeared serially. Both father and son have shown remarkable appreciation of Sanskrit Literature by undertaking the publication of works, which hold out a very limited appeal and which do not 'pay' to publish, in a commercial sense. But for their efforts many important works would have remained unavailable to scholars, and many of them might have been even lost. The tenacious manner in which the duty has been discharged in the face of financial loss and every other form of discouragement, from a sense of duty, reflects great credit on Babu Jayakrishna Das and his father. Had they expended their limited resources in bringing out books in the vernacular or school text only, they would have made, as many of their contemporaries have done, a great fortune. But they have remained content to pursue a path, full of obstacles, and leading to no economic profit, out of a patriotic resolve to give to the world rare and valuable Sanskrit works, hitherto available only in manuscript and to a very limited circle. Devotion to learning of this character is beyond praise. It is a distinct achievement that what has been done usually by wealthy Darbars, by Government and by Learned Societies should have been paralleled by the out-put of a single family concern.

Dr. GANGANATH JHA, M. A., D. LITT.
VICE-CHANCELLOR,
UNIVERSITY OF ALLAHABAD,
SENATE HOUSE,

ALLAHABAD, February 1, 1929.

The Secretary of the Chowkhamba Sanskrit Series, Varanasi has laid Sanskrit Scholars under a debt of gratitude by bringing out during the last thirty years a number of most valuable works of Sanskrit literature.

Dr. S. N. DAS GUPTA, M. A., PH. D.,
Principal, Sanskrit College, Calcutta,
28th November, 1931.

Babu Jaya Krishna Das Gupta the proprietor of the Chowkhamba Sanskrit Series of Benares has been doing a very Valuable Service to all Scholars of Sanskrit and Indologists in general by regularly publishing old and important Sanskrit Texts for the first time at considerable personal risk and sacrifice. Had it not been for the enterprising spirit of this gentleman and his father Babu Haridas Gupta, many of the Texts which are now familiar and which are used as text books in Sanskrit Examinations would have remained almost unknown.

I suppose on account of the slow demand and consumption of Sanskrit books the publisher finds himself much embarrassed and somehow carries on his work with difficulty. With liberal public help such as it richly deserves the publisher may, I hope, rectify them.

Pro-Vice Chancellor, Banaras Hindu University,

BANARAS, DATED 25. 4. 1928.

I have much pleasure in bearnig testimony to the great service which the publisher of the Chowkhamba Series have been rendering to the cause of Sanskrit scholarship. The Publication of School and College text books of Sanskrit Sahitya is sound business, but nothing less than a spirit of disinterested service could induce any publisher to undertake the publication of abstruse works on Vyākaraṇa, Nyāya, Mīmāṃsā, etc. Only Pandit and a few advanced Scholars outside their class care for these recondite branches of Sanskrit Learning......

MAHAMAHIMA

Vice-Chancellor, Sanskrit University,

Varanasi, July 21, 1959.

The Chowkhamba Sanskrit Series, Varanasi fulfils a need greatly felt by Pandits and others connected with Indian culture. The publishers are entitled to the gratitude of all who are interested in these branches of Studies.

Dr. S. R. Ranganathan : "When I was Librarian of the University o f Madras, M. M. S. Kuppuswamy Shastriar told me that I should get for the Library all the publications of the Chowkhamba Sanskrit Series. This is truly Encyclopaedic in its range. It covers almost all the fields of knowledge in which we have Sanskrit Classics. Sri Haridas Gupta founded this Series in Varanasi as far back as 1892. He has brought to print several Sanskrit manuscripts in all the disciplines from A–Z. His splendid work is being continued with equal enthusiasm by his worthy son Sri Krishnadas Gupta. Recently he has taken up the stupendous work of reprinting 'Shabda Kalpadrum' and 'Vachaspatyam' the two well-known mines of information which any library uses several times each day. In these days of mounting cost of printing, this venture of his is not merely commercial. It is indeed a service to the cultural revival of our country."

GOVERNOR

सत्यमेव जयते

UTTAR PRADESH

GOVERNOR'S CAMP.
UTTAR PRADESH.

Lucknow,

April 12, 1962.

I have great pleasure in testifying to the excellence of the work of publication of Sanskrit Series which the famous 'Chowkhamba' of Varanasi has been doing during the last seventy years. Many eminent scholars of Sanskrit and Indology in India and abroad have commended this noble endeavour in glowing terms. This selfless venture, motivated by pure love of the heritage of Sanskrit learning in the country, was undertaken by Shri Haridas Gupta as long ago as 1892 and is being carried on with devotion and enthusiasm by his son Shri Jaya Krishna Das Gupta. The Series has over a thousand publications in Sanskrit, Hindi and English to its credit, and recently it has undertaken the stupendous work of publishing 'Sabda Kalpadruma' and the 'Vachaspatyam', both Sanskrit lexicons, which are invaluable additions to any library or centre of learning and culture.

All this noble work has so far been carried on by the family without any assistance from Government. But under present condition, it is difficult to carry on this work without public patronage and Government assistance. There is absolutely no doubt about the value of these publications for the preservation and promotion of Indian culture and learning. I hope the Publishers of this Series will receive every encouragement at the hands of the public as also of the State and Central Governments. I wish the Series every success.

व्याख्याकार : डॉ० रघुनाथ सिंह, एम. ए, एल. एल. बी.

कल्हणकृत राजतरङ्गिणी अद्वितीय भारतीय इतिहास ग्रन्थ के रूप में विश्वप्रसिद्ध है। प्राचीन काल से लेकर ११ वीं सदी तक का काश्मीर का इतिहास उसमें लिपिबद्ध है। लेकिन काश्मीर के विद्वान इस असम्पूर्ण कार्य को समय पूर्ण करते आ रहे थे उसी के फलस्वरूप परवर्ती काल के इतिहास को लिखित रूप देने की इच्छा से जोनराज ने अपनी राजतरङ्गिणी की रचना किया। इसमें सन् ११४८ ई० से लेकर सन् १४२० ई० तक का इतिहास वर्णित है। विद्वान् व्याख्याकारने इसकी सरल-सुबोध हिन्दी व्याख्या प्रस्तुत कर हिन्दी पाठकों के सामने प्राचीन इतिहास अध्ययन करने की बड़ी सुविधा कर दी है
